

Baldwin student performs with the Puerto Rico Symphony Orchestra

Our very own Minako Yashiro from eleventh grade was one of the forty young students selected to perform with the Puerto Rico Symphony Orchestra in their concert series titled "Concierto de Reyes" (Three Kings Concert) on January 5th in the Bellas Artes de Santurce (4pm) and January 9th in the Teatro Yagüez in Mayagüez (8pm). The concert will be directed by Mrs. Roselin Pabon, and the Puerto Rico Childrens Choir (Coro de Niños de Puerto Rico) will be accompanying the orchestra that evening.

Minako has been playing the piano for the past ten years and it was her teacher for the past two, Mrs. Teresa Acevedo, the one who persuaded Minako to audition for the concert. She is still undecided as to what career she will pursue once she arrives at college, but she doesn't rule out the possibility of it being related to music. Some of her favorite composers are: Piotr Ilich Tchaikovsky, Robert Schuman, and Claude Debussy.

If you already have plans to attend this concert, now you know that a Baldwin student is representing our school. For tickets or additional concert information, you can check our the Puerto Rico Symphony Orchestra website at <http://www.sinfonicapr.gobierno.pr> , or the Centro de Bellas Artes de Santurce website at <http://www.cba.gobierno.pr>

