

Claudia Carrion paints the M/U School music room with faces of Classical Composers

One day in the teacher's lounge a teacher remarked if I had ever seen Claudia Carrion's art work. Since Claudia takes music Appreciation with me I asked her to show me her work, it was fantastic. I immediately asked if she could paint on the Music room wall the classical composers. She immediately replied yes. I commend Claudia for her talent, effort and the joy we have in the music room now that we have these paintings.

Sincerely, Bill Collazo
